BUSINESSEXPENSES

DIVISION WITH PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY: Business and Finance

OFFICE FOR ENSURING COMPLIANCE: Financial ServicesAccounts Payable

CONTACT OFFICE: Accounts Payable

STATEMENT OF POLICY

A. LOCAL BUSINESS EXPENSES

1. Business Meals

Business meals are defined as meals taken with students/prospective students, prospective employees, donors/prospective donors, and/or guests of the University during which University business elated discussions or activities take place. The cost of a meal can be considered reimbursable when the primary purpose of the meeting is to conduct business and there is a clear and compelling reason to meet over a meal. Expenditures/floir are only allowable for business occasions related to the mission of the University involving individuals external to the Loyola community and for functions including events designed to promote donor, employee, student or alumni relations. Under no circumstances may alcoholic beverages be charged to federally funded grants or contracts

The University allows payment for reasonable and necessariness meal expenses or light refreshments or meetings involving University personnel under certain circumstances. The frequency of such meetings and the related expenses must be reasonable and appropriate to the purpose of the discussion and naturate flows conducted by the schools and departments. Such meetings may include are not limited to, the following

- x Formal University committees that must meet during a meal time and on an infrequent basis (e.g., Staff Council);
- x Business meetings, references and training sessions that take place over an extended period of time (e.g., more than two hourse),
- x With external constituents where the meal is an integral part of the meeting

Departments are encouraged to utilizecampus diningestablishments (e.g., Boulder Garden Café, The Refectory, etc.) or Evergreen Catering.

University funds may not be spent on:

- x Meals at meetings with two or more University employees, which could have been conducted during regular business hours; or,
- x Meals considered to be personal in nature; these include, but are not limited to, parties or meals for employee birthdays, anniversaries, weddings, births, showers, or parties and events not sponsored by the University.

If an employee is unsure if a meal cændrovided during a meeting that they are scheduling or hosting, they should contact the Controller's Office

To qualify for reimbursement or payment, employees must substantiate the business purpose of the expense in compliance with the provisions such fin this Policy. The IRS requires all business meals and entertainment expenses to be properly documented, including the business

3. Tip Guidelines

Tips given for Universityapproved meals are reimbursable. Fealts a tip of 15%-20% is considered reasonable and appropriate.

B. BUSINESSENTERTAINMENT AND OTHER SOCIAL EVENTS

Certain events sponsored in connection with student, faculty or site of the department, holiday gatherings munity functions of the similar functions may be allowable as business expenses and should be discussed in advance with the chair/head of the department. The following conditions must be met to qualify for paymer penses incurred in connection with business entertainment and social events from University funds:

- x The event must be approved by the department head or his/her designee.
- x Alumni and fundraising events must be approved by the dean or an Advancement officer.

Х

entertainment events take place in a personal residence, reimbursement from University funds shallgenerally be limited to traditional catering costs.

5. Alcoholic Beverages