

to the center of the circle. The radius is the distance from the center to the edge. The diameter is the distance across the circle through the center. The circumference is the distance around the circle. The area is the space inside the circle. The perimeter is the distance around the circle.

